Monica,

I don't feel we can inform Christie on priorities without knowing what all the requests are – we don't have that information.

From what we've sent I think we need to get the Utah inquiries answered if possible (Judy Fayhs KUER and emma Penrod/brian mafly – SLT)

Any thoughts on which inquiries she should address?

Obviously the potential Japanese ban on imports from the impacted region needs to be addressed but that's not really a press inquiry.

Please see highlighted request below from Christopher Flavelle of Bloomberg. This may be addressed once the Workplan and related docs are posted but, right now, there's nothing on the website to answer his questions.

Laura, as I mentioned on the phone, I'm trying to find out whether the EPA's removal action at Gold King, which I'm told was designated "time critical," was preceded by an engineering evaluation. My understanding is that such evaluations aren't required for time-critical removal actions, but that doesn't necessarily mean none was conducted. Could you let me know?

Best,

Chris Flavelle
